

“The earth is but one country and mankind its citizens.” “Let not a man glory in this that he loves his country, let him rather glory in this that he loves his kind.”

BAHÁ'U'LLÁH

Some 800 Bahá'ís from nearly 80 countries serve on a temporary, volunteer basis as staff of the Bahá'í World Centre. Their duties include preservation and study of Bahá'í Sacred Texts; care and protection of Bahá'í Places; the reception and guiding of pilgrims and visitors; coordination of Bahá'í community activities throughout the world; monitoring and assisting social and economic development projects; and conducting the external relations of the Bahá'í International Community on an international level.

ENGLISH

During your visit, please help to maintain the beauty and atmosphere of this Holy Place, by observing the following guidelines:

Modest dress is required

No pets are admitted

No firearms or other weapons may be carried

Dispose of all refuse in the bins provided

- Including chewing gum, cigarette stubs and candy wrappers.

Do not picnic or eat snacks

Avoid excessive noise

Do not run or play

Keep children under close supervision at all times for their safety

Do not touch or play in the water, or sit on the fountains

- The water is not suitable for drinking

Elderly and disabled visitors are advised to have an able attendant

- The stairs and pathways are steep and may present difficulties

The guards may refuse admittance to any visitor or ask him or her to leave

ENGLISH

Welcome to the BAHÁ'Í WORLD CENTRE

